MISSISSIPPI

BOAT SONG.

Sung by Jerry Bryant, at Bryants' Minstrels,
472 Broadway, N. Y.

Some boats are fast and others slow,
Stern wheel boats on the Ohio,
With five feet scant on all the bars,
This boat can beat the railroad cars.
Now is the time for a bully trip,
So shake her up and let her rip!

Chorus.---Now is the time for a bully trip,
Hudah, hudah, hudah, hay,
So shake her up and let her rip!
Hudah, hudah, hudah, hay,
With five feet scant on all the bars,
This boat can beat the railroad cars.

Our boys they all do like this fun,
'Tis not the first time that we've run.
Our captain bets no every race,
And when he drinks he runs his face.
I saw him bet ten thousand down,
With Captain Joe, in Orleans town. Chorus.

So crowd her hard with pitch and pine,
The other boat's ten miles behind.
Telegraph wires are mighty slow,
And our safety valves are tied below.
I bet my money, and I'm bound to win;
And fill my pockets full of "tin." Chorus.
